

Benefits of a Cloud-based Financial Management System

We understand that your focus is on enabling your business to make better and quicker decisions based on accurate information. In order to run a successful finance team, you need to be able to communicate across departments, translating complex financial data into consumable information to help the business navigate rapidly changing economies and markets, providing foresight to minimise risk.

Do you...

Spend too much time gathering data from your FMS?

- > Extensive reporting capabilities enable you to meet internal, statutory and regulatory reporting requirements, providing you with instant data analysis for informed decision making.
- > Using a Cloud-based solution, you have instant access to suit your needs. Users can simply log in to the solution online, wherever and whenever, significantly reducing operating costs and accommodating the increasing mobility of the modern workforce.

Need to provide insight and direction for the business using accurate and easily accessible data?

- > Robust KPI dashboards ensure that you are able to get an accurate view of financial performance, turning data into your system into crucial information which will drive business strategy
- > View information from across multiple offices in one system, for easy and effective financial management and an instant holistic view of your performance.

Need a system which can support business initiatives and mitigate risk?

- > Using a Cloud-based solution means your data is stored in a UK-based Tier 3 data centre, the highest level of security.

Benefits of a Cloud-based FMS

Require technology that supports your business now and in the future?

- > Benefit from greater agility via a Software-as-a-Service subscription plan. Implementing a subscription system means you can easily scale your system in line with your organisational processes and growth plans, both today and in the future, ensuring you are equipped to manage any future system or budget challenges.

Our Cloud-based FMS, Cloud Financials, provides all of these benefits and more to finance teams looking to reimagine the way they work.
